CONTENTS VOL. 21, 1987–88

Aggrégats ioniques positifs d'intérêt atmosphérique (Positive ion clusters which are of atmospheric importance)
M.L. Huertas, A. Marenco et J. Fontan (Toulouse, France) 1
Estimation de l'onde de température de surface à partir de flux de conduction thermique dans le sol (Estimation of the surface temperature wave from the ground heat flux)
G. Cautenet (Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire) 7
Observations of CCN concentrations south of the Sahara during a dust haze
F. Désalmand (Paris, France) 13
Low visibilities at Sprakensehl, Federal Republic of Germany
G. Hoidale and D. Bruce (White Sands, N.M., U.S.A.) 29
Water droplet growth study in a continuous flow diffusion cloud chamber
J.P. Garnier, Ph. Ehrhard and Ph. Mirabel (Strasbourg, France) 41
Echanges biosphère–atmosphère d'azote et de soufre en zone intertropicale: transferts entre les écosystèmes forêt et savane en Afrique de l'Ouest (Biosphere–atmosphere exchanges of nitrogen and sulphur in an intertropical zone: transportations between the forest- and savannah-ecosystems in west Africa)
R. Delmas (Brazzaville, Congo) et J. Servant (Toulouse, France) 53
A statistical approach for improving the Gaussian plume model
M.L. Sanchez (Valladolid, Spain), J.L. Sanchez (Léon, Spain) and M.C. Ramos (Valladolid, Spain) 75
Influence of surfactants on droplet growth by water vapor condensation on NaCl particles: experimental investigations and theoretical implications
B. Thaveau, R. Serpolay (Clermont-Ferrand, France) and S. Piekarski (Limoges, France) 83
Book Review
Toxic Metals in the Atmosphere, by J.O. Nriagu and C.I. Davidson (Editors) — J. Servant 97

Rime density, radial forces and atmospheric electricity
C.P.R. Saunders (Manchester, Great Britain) and C.C. Zhang (Nanjing, P.R. China) 101
Discrimination of ice from water in clouds by optical remote sensing
P. Pilewskie and S. Twomey (Tucson, Ariz., U.S.A.) 113
Richardson number, vertical wind shear and storm occurrences at Kano, Nigeria
J.B. Omotosho (Akure, Nigeria) 123
An investigation of vortex rings from bursting bubbles
M.J. Iacono and D.C. Blanchard (Albany, N.Y., U.S.A.) 139
On the influence of entrainment and forced lifting on some products of a 1-D model of a Cb cloud
M. Ćurić and D. Janc (Beograd, Yugoslavia) 151
Short Communication
Principales caractéristiques de la teneur en vapeur d'eau au-dessus de la couche limite planétaire (Main characteristics of the atmospheric water vapour content above the boundary layer)
M. Vergez (Bagnères-de-Bigorre, France) 171
Book Review
Das Phänomen des Polarlichts, by Wilfried Schröder — D. Henning 181

In Memorian Walter F. Hitschfeld (1922–1986) 183
Meeting Review 185
Announcements 187
Foreword 189
The International Satellite Cloud Climatology Project, ISCCP, and its European Regional

Experiment ICE (International Cirrus Project)
E. Raschke (Köln, F.R. Germany) 191
Cloud detection and analysis: a review of recent progress
A.H. Goodman and A. Henderson-Sellers (Liverpool, Great Britain) 203
The USAF RT Nephanalysis, a real-time global cloud archive: reviewed for climatological purposes
K. McGuffie (Liverpool, Great Britain) 229
A quantitative evaluation of surface-based observations of oceanic cloudiness
A. Henderson-Sellers and K. McGuffie (Liverpool, Great Britain) 241
A simulation of daily solar irradiance in Italy using exponentially distributed white noise
U. Amato (Naples, Italy), V. Cuomo, F. Fontana (Potenza, Italy), M.T. Lanfredi and C. Serio (Naples, Italy) 261
Using Meteosat data to validate a prognostic cloud generation scheme
H. Le Treut and Zhao-Xin Li (Paris, France) 273
Cloud-radiation feedbacks in a climate model
E. Roeckner (Hamburg, F.R. Germany) 293
The effect of cloud parametrization and temperature profile on the climate sensitivity to ozone perturbations
L.M. François (Ougrée-Liège, Belgium) 305
Investigation of the cloundiness–albedo feedback using analogue satellite images
J. Mika and A. Rimóczi-Paál (Budapest, Hungary) 323
Multifractal simulations and analysis of clouds by multiplicative processes
D. Schertzer (Paris, France) and S. Lovejoy (Montréal, Qué., Canada) 337
